

We are dangerously close to having our news reported all by one source and elimination of all diversity. The result of this would allow manipulation of society through imbalanced reporting to a degree never before imagined.